Membership in the CES Quilt Guild implies permission to publish member's information and images in the CES Membership Directory, website, and newsletter. It is the member's responsibility to also provide any photography objections in writing to the CES board. In addition, the member is responsible to specify any photography limitations prior to displaying any quilts at show and tell. Inclusion of the quilter's image with the quilt photo will aid (not guaranteed) in assigning proper recognition for any published works.

I have read the above information and acknowledge agreement with the above information. _____
